1 IMPORTANT NOTES

This Prospectus is dated 24 April 2014 and a copy was lodged with ASIC and ASX on that date. ASIC and ASX take no responsibility for the content of this Prospectus.

No securities will be allotted or issued on the basis of this Prospectus any later than 13 months after the date of this Prospectus.

No person is authorised to give any information or to make any representation in connection with the Offer which is not contained in the Prospectus. Any information or representation which is not contained in this Prospectus or disclosed by the Company pursuant to its continuous disclosure obligations may not be relied upon as having been authorised by the Company in connection with the Issue or this Prospectus.

Application will be made to ASX within 7 days after the date of this Prospectus for official quotation of the New Shares.

This Prospectus has not been, and will not be, lodged, filed or registered with any regulatory authority under the securities laws of any country other than Australia, New Zealand or China (including Hong Kong). The securities that are the subject of this Prospectus have not been, nor will they be, approved by or registered with any regulatory authority of any other country. Moreover, this Prospectus does not constitute an offer or issue in any place in which, or to any person to whom, it would not be lawful to make such an offer or issue.

Those investors who receive this Prospectus electronically are advised that the issue of securities under the electronic prospectus is only available to persons receiving the electronic prospectus within Australia. A paper copy of this Prospectus may be obtained free of charge from the Company. The information on www.a-cap.com.au does not form part of this Prospectus.

Certain words and terms used in this Prospectus have defined meanings, which are set out in Section 11.

Transaction-specific prospectus

This Prospectus is a "transaction-specific" prospectus issued under section 713 of the Corporations Act. Section 713 allows the issue of a more concise prospectus in relation to an offer of continuously quoted securities. The Prospectus is therefore intended to be read in conjunction with the publicly-available information in relation to A-Cap which has been notified to the ASX; it does not include all of the information that would be included in a prospectus for an offering of securities in a company that is not already listed on the ASX. Investors should therefore also have regard to the other publicly-available information in relation to A-Cap before making a decision whether or not to invest in the Company.

3 KEY INFORMATION

The information set out in this section is not intended to be comprehensive and should be read in conjunction with the full text of this Prospectus.

3.1 Offer

The Company is making a pro-rata non-renounceable issue offering Shareholders 1 New Share for every 3.5 Shares held as at the Record Date, at an issue price of 5.5 cents per New Share.

The closing date and time for acceptances and payments is 5.00pm Perth time on Tuesday 27 May 2014. Subject to compliance with the Listing Rules, the Company reserves the right to close the Offer early or to extend the Closing Date.

The details of the Offer are set out in full in section 5.

3.2 What you need to do

The number of New Shares to which you are entitled is shown on the accompanying Entitlement and Acceptance Form. Fractional Entitlements will be rounded up to the nearest whole Share. You may do one of the following:

- accept your Entitlement in full;
- accept part of your Entitlement;
- allow your Entitlement to lapse; or
- accept your Entitlement in full and apply for additional New Shares in excess of your Entitlement.

See section 7 for detailed instructions on what you need to do.

3.3 Purposes of the Offer and Placement

Following completion of the Offer (which is fully underwritten) the Company will issue approximately 81,824,282 New Shares, raising approximately $4,500,336 (before the costs of the Offer).

The purposes of the Offer and Placement are to:

- allow the Company to complete further feasibility work necessary for a mining licence application in the first half of next year at the Company's Letlhakane Uranium Project in Botswana;
- enable the Company to advance its coal projects following positive reports received from independent consultants on the development potential of these assets; and
- enable Shareholders to participate further in the ownership and growth potential of the Company.

The proposed use of proceeds are discussed more fully in section 6.

3.4 Effect of the Offer on the share capital of the Company

Following completion of the Offer (which is fully underwritten) and the issue of New Shares there will be 368,209,268 Shares and 14,210,000 Options on issue.

A more detailed description of the effects of the Offer including the effects of the Offer in the Company's capital structure is contained in section 8.

4 RISK FACTORS

Investing in the Company involves a degree of risk. This section describes the potential risks that may be significant for you to consider in relation to an investment in the Company.

Before applying for New Shares, you should consider whether they are a suitable investment for you and the risks associated with an investment in New Shares. Many of the risks are outside the control of the Company and its Directors. These risks include those identified in this section and other matters referred to in this Prospectus. Additional risks and uncertainties that the Company is unaware of or the Company currently believes immaterial, may also become important factors that affect the Company. The occurrence of any of the events which pose these risks could have a material adverse effect on the Company's prospects, financial condition and results of operations. In that case, the trading price of Shares could decline and you could lose some or all of your investment

4.1 Specific Risk Factors

In addition to the general risks applicable to any investment in a listed resources company, the Directors believe that there are a number of specific factors that should be taken into account before investors decide whether or not to invest in the Company. These are set out below.

(a) Uranium prices

The Company's business is greatly influenced by the market price for uranium which is driven by supply and demand factors which are outside of the control of the Company. A fall in the market price of uranium could substantially impact on the economics of the Company's projects and on exploration and development programs, and consequently on the Company's share price.

(b) Project development timetable

The Company's primary business is currently focused on developing its Letlhakane Uranium Project in Botswana. As this project is at feasibility stage, there are significant milestones that must be achieved before the project can be developed.

(c) Capital requirements and costs

The Company has finite working capital and will therefore need to raise additional capital, through either equity or debt or joint venture financing or sale, to support its projects. The Company cannot guarantee that such funding will be available as it is required.

(d) Resource estimates

Resource estimates are expressions of judgment based on knowledge, experience and resource modelling. Resource estimates are inherently reliant on interpretations and are therefore imprecise. Estimates may be valid when originally calculated and then later be altered as new information or techniques become available. Although the Company employs qualified professionals to prepare resource estimates, as further information becomes available these estimates may change. Any changes to resource estimates could negatively affect the Company's projects.

(e) Regulatory risks

The Company's exploration and development activities are subject to various laws governing prospecting, development, permit and license requirements, industrial relations, environment, land use, royalties, water, toxic substances, mine safety and occupational health.

Approvals, licenses and permits required to comply with such rules are subject to the discretion of the applicable government officials. No assurance can be given that the Company will be successful in obtaining any of these various approvals, licenses and permits or maintaining such authorisations in full force and effect without modification or revocation.

Where these approvals, licenses and permits are required and not obtained, the Company may be restricted or prohibited from continuing with its exploration projects.

(f) Personnel and access to labour

The Company is reliant on key personnel employed or engaged by the Company. Loss of such personnel may have an adverse effect on the performance of the Company. Further, the recruitment of additional personnel with appropriate qualifications is critical to the Company's success. As the Company's business grows it will require additional financial, administrative, mining and operations staff. While the Company believes it will be successful in attracting and retaining qualified personnel, there can be no assurance of such success.

4.2 Minerals industry risk factors

(a) Operational risks

Exploration, development, mining and processing are labour and machinery-intensive processes. Notwithstanding that the Company intends to maintain its machinery regularly, unforeseen major failures, breakdowns or repairs required to key items of mining plant and equipment or mine infrastructure may result in significant delay or cost to the Company. In addition, poor weather conditions over a prolonged period may adversely affect mining and exploration activities and hence the timing of receipt of operating revenue.

A rise in operating costs (for materials or labour) may adversely affect the Company and could render some opportunities or projects uneconomic.

(b) Exploration and Mining licenses

The Company's activities depend on the grant or maintenance of appropriate licenses, concessions, leases, permits and regulatory consents which may be withdrawn or made subject to limitations. Although the Company believes that the licenses, concessions, leases, permits or consents it requires will be granted and that those it holds will be renewed (if required, once they expire, according to the current laws), there can be no assurance that they will be granted or renewed (as the case may be) or as to the term of any such grant or renewal.

(c) Environmental risks

The Company's current and proposed projects and operations are subject to environmental laws and regulations under the law of Botswana. The Company expects that, due to the nature of its mineral exploration operations, its activities will have an impact on the environment.

The Company strives to carry out its activities in a responsible manner and in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations. Environmental laws and regulations are likely to evolve in a manner that will require exceedingly stricter and more disciplined standards. Also, as these laws and regulations develop those standards will likely carry greater penalties for non-compliance. Therefore the cost and requirements for complying with these standards may grow in the future and this may have a negative effect on the Company and may potentially prevent the Company from being able to develop an otherwise economically viable project.

While the Company seeks to minimise its impact on the environment, events either within or outside of the Company's control may occur which result in accidental and unforeseen spills, leakages or other consequences, which could damage the environment and expose the Company to extensive liability against which it has not (or may not be able to) insure.

4.3 General risk factors

(a) Liquidity risk

There may be relatively few buyers or sellers of securities on ASX at any given time. This may affect the volatility of the market price of the Company's Shares and the prevailing market price at which Shareholders are able to sell their Shares. This may result in Shareholders receiving a price that is less or more than the price paid under the Offer.

(b) Foreign exchange risk

International prices of various commodities are commonly denominated in United States Dollars, whereas the income of and expenditure of the Company is accounted for in Australian dollars and United States dollars, exposing the Company to the fluctuations and volatility of the rate of exchange between the United States dollar and the Australian dollar as determined in international markets.

4.4 Speculative nature of investment

The above list of risk factors ought not to be taken as exhaustive of the risks faced by investors in the Company. The above factors, and others not specifically referred to above, may in the future materially affect the performance of Company and the value of the New Shares offered under this Prospectus.

Therefore, the New Shares to be issued pursuant to this Prospectus carry no guarantee with respect to the payment of dividends, returns of capital or the market value of those New Shares.

Potential investors should consider that an investment in the Company is speculative.

Investors should therefore consider carefully and consult their professional advisors to determine whether investment in the Company is suitable for them.

5 DETAILS OF THE OFFER

5.1 The Offer

On 7 April 2014 the Company announced that the Company's board had resolved to raise up to approximately $5.8 million by way of:

- (a) the Placement to raise up to approximately $1.32 million (before costs) from institutional investors based in the United Kingdom; and
- (b) the Offer to raise up to approximately $4.5 million (before costs).

The Company completed the Placement on 17 April 2014, receiving $1,267,200 in funds (after costs) and issuing 24,000,000 Shares.

As contemplated in the announcement of 7 April 2014 the Company is now offering Eligible Shareholders the opportunity to subscribe for 1 New Share for every 3.5 Shares held on the Record Date at an offer price of 5.5 cents per New Share. Each New Share will be issued fully paid. From the date of issue, New Shares will rank equally with existing Shares.

The number of New Shares to which you are entitled is shown on the accompanying Entitlement and Acceptance Form. Fractional entitlements will be rounded up to the nearest whole Share.

The closing date and time for acceptances and payments is 5.00pm Perth time on Tuesday 27 May 2014.

5.2 Who is entitled to participate in the Offer

Every Shareholder registered as the holder of fully paid ordinary shares in the Company at 5.00pm Perth time on Thursday 1 May 2014, and whose registered address is in Australia, New Zealand or China (including Hong Kong), is entitled to participate in the Offer.

5.3 No Rights trading

The Offer is non-renounceable and therefore there will be no rights which are tradeable on ASX or otherwise transferable. Shareholders will not receive any payment or value in respect of Entitlements not taken up.

5.4 Underwriting

The Offer is fully underwritten by Ansheng Investment Company Ltd pursuant to the terms of the Underwriting Agreement. This means that Ansheng will take up any Entitlements which are not accepted by Shareholders. A summary of the Underwriting Agreement is set out in section 10.4

As at the date of this Prospectus (following completion of the Placement), Ansheng has a relevant interest of approximately 18.16% of the Company's issued voting shares.

The table below demonstrates the approximate extent of the increase in the voting power of Ansheng as a result of underwriting the Offer:

Event/Date	Number of Shares in which Ansheng has a relevant interest	Voting Power of Ansheng %
Date of Prospectus	52,000,000	18.16
After issue of New Shares assuming Ansheng takes up its full Entitlement and there is otherwise a 100% Shortfall.	133,824,282	36.34
After issue of New Shares assuming Ansheng takes up its full Entitlement and there is otherwise a 75% Shortfall.	117,082,427	31.80
After issue of New Shares assuming Ansheng takes up its full Entitlement and there is otherwise a 50% Shortfall.	100,340,712	27.25
After issue of New Shares assuming Ansheng takes up its full Entitlement and there is otherwise a 25% Shortfall.	83,598,928	22.70
After issue of New Shares assuming Ansheng takes up its full Entitlement and there is no Shortfall.	66,857,143	18.16

Ansheng has advised the Company that it intends to take up its full entitlement under the Offer. The figures depicted above demonstrate the potential effect of the underwriting by Ansheng. In the event that Shareholders take up their Entitlements and New Shares are allotted under the Offer, the underwriting obligation of Ansheng will reduce by a corresponding amount.

In general, Ansheng has advised the Company that it fully supports the Company's objectives for the Letlhakane Uranium Project and that following the Issue it has no intention of using its voting power to bring about any significant change to the business or operations of the Company as currently conducted.

Ansheng has consented in writing to the inclusion of the statement set out above in this Prospectus.

5.5 ASX quotation

The Company will make an application to ASX for admission of the New Shares to quotation on ASX within 7 days after the date of this Prospectus.

5.6 Issue of New Shares

It is expected that New Shares will be issued and holding statements will be despatched to applicants by Tuesday 3 June 2014.

Subscription moneys will be held in a subscription account until the New Shares are issued. This account will be established as a trust account and kept by the Company on behalf of participating Shareholders.

Interest earned on the subscription money will be for the benefit of the Company and will be retained by the Company irrespective of whether New Shares are issued.

5.7 Minimum subscription

There is no minimum subscription to this Offer.

5.8 Participation in dividends

The New Shares that are the subject of this Prospectus will rank for dividends pari passu in all respects with existing Shares. It is not envisaged that dividends will be paid on those Shares in the foreseeable future.

5.9 Overseas Shareholders

This Offer is being made only to Eligible Shareholders.

In the Company's view, it would be unreasonable to make the Offer to Shareholders with registered addresses outside Australia, New Zealand and China (including Hong Kong) ('Foreign Shareholders') having regard to the number of Shareholders resident outside those jurisdictions, the number of New Shares that would be offered to them, and the cost of complying with the legal requirements in those jurisdictions in relation to the Offer.

Accordingly the Offer is not being made to Foreign Shareholders or in any place where, or to any person to whom, it would otherwise be unlawful to make such an offer. It is the responsibility of Shareholders to ensure compliance with all laws of any country which may be relevant to the Offer.

5.10 Applications for Additional Shares

In addition to being able to apply for New Shares, Shareholders who subscribe for their full Entitlement will also have the opportunity to apply for New Shares that are not subscribed for in the Offer (Additional Shares), subject to the requirements set out in Section 6.4.

The offer of the Shortfall is a separate offer pursuant to this Prospectus. The issue price of any New Shares offered pursuant to the Shortfall Offer shall be 5.5 cents per Share, being the price at which the Entitlements have been offered to Shareholders pursuant to this Prospectus. As permitted by the ASX Listing Rules, the Directors reserve the right to issue the Shortfall at their discretion. Accordingly, the Company does not guarantee that you will receive any Additional Shares you may apply for in excess of your Entitlements. Any offer for any portion of the Shortfall is made on the basis of this Prospectus.

Directors may not apply for Additional Shares.

6 USE OF PROCEEDS

The combined funds of raised from the Placement and the Offer are proposed to be expended as follows:

Costs associated with Offer and Placement	261,334
Drilling programme - coal projects	391,000
Feasibility study – Letlhakane	4,906,668
Total	5,559,002

8.4 Effect on control of the Company

If all Eligible Shareholders take up their Entitlements in full, then the Offer will have no material effect on their ownership of the Company.

If some Eligible Shareholders do not take up all of their Entitlements, then the shareholding interests of those Shareholders in the Company will be diluted.

The proportional interests of those who are not Eligible Shareholders will be diluted because such Shareholders are not entitled to participate in the Offer.

9 ENTITLEMENTS AND LIABILITIES ATTACHING TO THE NEW SHARES

9.1 New Shares

The following is a summary to the rights and liabilities attaching to the New Shares. Full details of the rights attaching to the New Shares are set out in the Company's Constitution, a copy of which is available for inspection at the Company's registered office during normal business hours.

The rights and liabilities attaching to New Shares can be summarised as follows:

Share Capital

The share capital of the Company presently consists of ordinary shares only. All existing Shares are of the same class and rank equally in all respects.

Voting Rights

Subject to any right or restrictions for the time being attached to any class or classes of shares (at present there are none), at a general meeting every holder of Shares present in person or by proxy, attorney or corporate representative has one vote on a show of hands and one vote per share on a poll. A person who holds a Share which is not fully paid is entitled to a fraction of a vote equal to the amount paid up (but not credited as paid up) on the Share divided by the total amount paid and payable on the Share (excluding amounts credited).

Dividend rights

Subject to the rights of holders of Shares issued with any special or preferential rights (at present there are none), holders of fully paid Shares on which any dividend is declared or paid are entitled to participate in that dividend equally. Each Share which is not fully paid is entitled to a fraction of the dividend declared or paid on a fully paid Share equivalent to the proportion which the amount paid up (but not credited as paid up) on the Share bears to the total amounts paid and payable, whether or not called, (excluding amounts credited) on the Share.

Rights on winding-up

Subject to the rights of holders of Shares issued upon special terms and conditions (at present there are none), holders of Shares will share in any surplus assets on a winding-up of the Company in proportion to the numbers of Shares held by them respectively.

Transfer of shares

Subject to the Constitution, the Corporations Act, and the Listing Rules, Shares are freely transferable.

Future Increases in capital

The allotment and issue of any New Shares is under the control of the Directors. Subject to the Constitution, the Corporations Act, and the Listing Rules, the Directors may allot or otherwise dispose of new Shares on such terms and conditions as they may in their absolute discretion determine.

Variation of rights

The rights attaching to the Shares may be varied in accordance with the Corporations Act.

10 ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

10.1 Continuous Disclosure Obligations

The Company is a "listed disclosing entity" for the purposes of the Corporations Act. As such, it is subject to regular reporting and disclosure obligations which require it to disclose to the ASX any information of which it is, or becomes, aware concerning the Company and which a reasonable person would expect to have a material effect on the price or the value of the Company's securities.

By virtue of section 713 of the Corporations Act, the Company is entitled to issue a "transaction-specific" prospectus in respect of the Issue.

In general terms, a "transaction-specific prospectus" is only required to contain information in relation to the effect of the issue of securities on the Company and the rights and liabilities attaching to the securities. It is not necessary to include general information in relation to all of the assets and liabilities, financial position and performance, profits and losses or prospects of the issuing company.

Having taken such precautions and having made such enquiries as are reasonable, the Company believes that it has complied with the general and specific requirements of the ASX as applicable from time-to-time throughout the 12 months before the issue of this Prospectus which require the Company to notify the ASX of information about specified events or matters as they arise for the purpose of the ASX making that information available to the stock market conducted by the ASX.

As a disclosing entity under the Corporations Act, the Company states that:

- (a) it is subject to regular reporting and disclosure obligations;
- (b) copies of documents lodged with ASIC in relation to the Company may be obtained from, or inspected at, an office of ASIC; and
- (c) it will provide a copy of each of the following documents, free of charge, to any person on request between the date of issue of this Prospectus and the Issue Date:
 - (i) the annual financial report of the Company for the financial year ended 30 June 2013;
 - (ii) the half-year financial report of the Company for the six months ended 31 December 2013; and
 - (iii) all continuous disclosure notices given by the Company after the lodgement of the annual financial report referred to in paragraph (i) above and before the lodgement of this Prospectus with ASIC (see below).

There is no information which has been excluded from a continuous disclosure notice in accordance with the Listing Rules that investors or their professional advisers:

- (a) would reasonably require for the purpose of making an informed assessment of:
 - (i) the assets and liabilities, financial position and performance, profits and losses and prospects of the Company; and
 - (ii) the rights and liabilities attaching to the securities the subject of this Prospectus; and
- (b) would reasonably expect to find in this Prospectus.

This Prospectus contains information specific to the Offer. If investors require further information in relation to the Company, they are recommended to take advantage of the opportunity to inspect or obtain copies of the documents referred to above.
